Children will respect this right...	Article	Duty-bearers will respect this right...
We respect this right by listening to others , even if we don't agree, and sharing our own opinions and ideas.	Article 12 Every child has the right to express their views, feelings and wishes in all matters affecting them, and to have their views considered and taken seriously.	We respect this right by listening to children and acting upon what they say.
We will be kind to others in our words and actions . We will treat others how we wish to be treated.	Article 19 Protection from violence, abuse and neglect Governments must do all they can to ensure that children are protected from all forms of violence, abuse, neglect and bad treatment by their parents or anyone else who looks after them.	We respect this right by teaching children how to be respectful. We listen to all children and take their views and opinions into account, helping them to solve any problems.
We respect this right by looking after our school and the resources in it and by taking part in all well-being activities.	Article 24 Every child has the right to the best possible health. Governments must provide good quality health care, clean water, nutritious food, and a clean environment and education on health and well-being so that children can stay healthy.	We respect this right by keeping our school clean and tidy and providing different learning opportunities to support children's mental and physical health.
We will respect this right by having a positive attitude in everything we do. We will respect others right to an education by not interrupting their learning .	Article 28 Every child has the right to an education. Primary education must be free. Secondary education must be available for every child. Discipline in schools must respect children's dignity. Richer countries must help poorer countries achieve this	We respect this right by helping children learn new things that are interesting and exciting to them. We will allow all children to be the best that they can be. "Strive, Believe and Achieve"
We will respect this right by having pride in who we are and have high aspirations for ourselves in everything we do.	Article 29 Education must develop every child's personality, talents and abilities to the full. It must encourage the child's respect for human rights, as well as respect for their parents, their own and other cultures, and the environment.	We respect this right by giving children a wide variety of experiences to develop their talents and skills which they may not experience elsewhere.
We will respect this right by taking part in all of the activities on offer to us to develop our individual talents .	Article 31 Every child has the right to relax, play and take part in a wide range of cultural and artistic activities.	We respect this right by providing opportunities for children to maintain their overall wellbeing.
